Challenges and Opportunities in Library Workplaces

Monday, April 15, 2024
1pm - 2:30pm ET

Everyone has a role to play in creating inclusive libraries.

Many people in libraries want to be BIPOC allies but don't know where to start. Join us for a discussion on the perceived challenges to creating inclusive workplaces and how to demonstrate allyship. Strategies for recruitment, retention, advancement, and outreach will be shared and participants will have opportunities to share ideas and co-create strategies.
